Module: Supervision of independent (degree) projects

Handledning av studenter i självständiga arbeten

The module comprises 80 hours corresponding to 3 credits

Entry requirements

Bachelor's degree

Learning outcomes

After completing the module, the participants should be able to:

- reflect on perspectives of supervision supported by current research in higher education pedagogy,
- plan, carry out and evaluate supervision of students' independent (degree) projects, and
- reflect on their role as supervisors.

Content

The module deals primarily with the role of the supervisor and the different phases of the supervision process of an independent (degree) project. The course content will include a consideration of pedagogical tools that may be useful to the supervisor, laws and regulations governing independent (degree) projects, and quality requirements and criteria for a good thesis that are applied in various disciplines. The relationship between the supervisor and the examiner will also be addressed.

Qualification for certificate

To be eligible for a certificate, participants are required to reflect in writing and orally on their role as supervisors in relation to the scientific pedagogical literature. The reflection should include examples that show that the participant can plan, carry out and develop supervision in such a way that considers laws and regulations, quality requirements, research in higher education, and pedagogical tools.

Others

This module can be included as part of achieving the pedagogical eligibility for a post-doctoral fellow, lecturer, associate senior lecturer, senior lecturer, associate professor, and professor according to the rules of appointment at LiU.
